

Building Stronger Connections | Creating Lasting Impact.

At Barra-gi Consulting, we specialise in culturally safe engagement, strategic consulting, and community-driven solutions that empower organisations to connect meaningfully with First Nations communities. Our expertise spans across:

- Culturally Safe OHS Programs - delivering tailored, respectful, and safe workplace solutions.
- Community & Stakeholder Engagement - facilitating inclusive conversations and fostering strong relationships.
- Project Delivery & Consultancy - driving successful outcomes for schools, councils, health services, and community initiatives.
- First Nations Leadership - embedding cultural knowledge, voices, and practices at every stage of the process.

From leading large-scale projects like the Thornton Primary School CwC initiative to supporting Eurobodalla Regional Hospital and PCYC programs, we're committed to creating change that matters. At Barra-gi, we don't just consult - we collaborate, co-design, and deliver solutions with integrity, respect, and cultural responsibility. Empowering Communities. Strengthening Culture. Driving Impact.
