

Koori Constructions Pty Ltd is a trusted Aboriginal-owned building company committed to providing exceptional construction solutions that embody quality, innovation, and sustainability. With extensive industry experience, we specialise in residential, commercial, and community-focused projects that transform spaces and empower local communities. Our dedicated team combines expert craftsmanship with a deep understanding of client needs, ensuring tailored results for every project. Join us at our booth at The Summit to learn more about our services, view our recent work, and explore opportunities for collaboration. Together, let's™ build a brighter future!